THE DISCIPLINARY BOARD OF THE SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA [204 PA.CODE CH. 81]

Proposed Amendments to the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct Regarding Fees

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Notice is hereby given that the Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania ("Board") plans to recommend to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania that it adopt an amendment to Pennsylvania Rule of Professional Conduct ("RPC") 1.5 relating to fees. This proposed rule amendment adds commentary related to duties of successor counsel in contingent fee matters.

RPC 1.5 governs a lawyer's ethical duties related to fees, with the commentary providing guidance as to the basis or rate of fee, terms of payment, division of fee, and disputes over fees. Although the commentary contemplates the situation where a single billing to a client covers the fee of two or more lawyers who are not in the same firm and who are simultaneously representing a client, most often in contingent fee matters, the commentary does not address the circumstance of a successor counsel from one firm replacing counsel from a different firm in a contingent fee matter, where the services of that predecessor counsel are terminated by the client, without cause.

This particular scenario may be a common experience for practitioners. American Bar Association addressed this circumstance in its June 18, 2019 Formal Opinion 487 ("Fee Division with Client's Prior Counsel"). The opinion addresses the successor counsel's duties after taking over the contingent fee matter and underscores the successor counsel's critical duty to advise the client in writing of the predecessor counsel's potential claim on a recovery. Other concomitant duties are discussed pertaining to potential conflicts of interest if the successor counsel negotiates with the predecessor counsel on the client's behalf, and handling disputed funds. The Board's review of the opinion leads us to conclude that guidance on this subject matter would be helpful Pennsylvania practitioners.

The Board's proposed amendment to Comment [5] of RPC 1.5 describes the successor counsel/predecessor counsel scenario, reminds successor counsel of his or her duties pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) of RPC 1.5, as well as duties set forth in RPC 1.7 and 1.15(f), and references Formal Opinion 487.

Just as in any contingent fee matter, the successor counsel must comply with RPC 1.5(b) describing the rate or basis of the fee and with RPC 1.5(c)'s requirement of a written fee agreement stating the method by which the fee is determined. These rules are designed to ensure that the client has a clear understanding of the total legal fee. A contingent fee agreement that fails to mention that some portion of the fee may be due to or claimed by the predecessor counsel in the circumstances described herein is inconsistent with the requirements of RPC 1.5(b) and (c).

If the successor counsel will be involved in negotiating fees with the predecessor counsel on the client's behalf, RPC 1.7 requires the successor counsel to advise the client of the personal conflict of interest inherent in such a situation and to obtain appropriate informed consent to waive the conflict. If a disagreement arises concerning the amount of the predecessor counsel's fees from the proceeds obtained by the successor counsel, the successor counsel must hold such disputed portion of the funds in trust, pending resolution in accordance with RPC 1.15(f).

Interested persons are invited to submit written comment regarding the proposed amendments by mail to the Executive Office, The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, 601 Commonwealth Avenue, Suite 5600, PO Box 62625, Harrisburg, PA 17106-2625, by facsimile at 717-231or by email address Dboard.comments@pacourts.us on or before October 7, 2020.
