THE DISCIPLINARY BOARD OF THE
SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA
[204 PA. CODE]

Proposed Amendments to the Rules of Disciplinary Enforcement to Require Certain Attorneys Who Become Debtors in Bankruptcy to Provide Written Notice of the Bankruptcy Filing

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Notice is hereby given that The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania ("Disciplinary Board") is considering a recommendation to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania that the Court amend Rules 208 and 218 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Disciplinary Enforcement ("Enforcement Rules"), as set forth in Annex A. In addition, the Disciplinary Board and the Board of The Pennsylvania Lawyers Fund for Client Security ("Fund") are considering jointly recommending to the Court that the Court adopt new Enforcement Rule 532, as set forth in Annex B. The intent of the revisions is that the Disciplinary Board and the Fund receive timely notice of a bankruptcy filing in which either agency or both agencies have an interest in order that action can be taken to contest the dischargeability of the debt, thereby promoting the disciplinary system's penal and rehabilitative interests, preserving the Fund's interest in securing restitution, and helping to defray the expense of agency proceedings.

Amendment to Enforcement Rule
208(g) (Annex A):

Subsections (g)(1) - (5) of Enforcement Rule 208 provide for the taxation of expenses incurred in the investigation and prosecution of a proceeding that results in discipline, an administrative fee, and assessed penalties on unpaid taxed expenses and administrative fees. Attorneys with unpaid judgments under this Enforcement Rule who attempt to discharge the debt in bankruptcy should be required to give timely written notice of the attorney's filing for bankruptcy protection to the Executive Director of the Disciplinary Board as set forth in proposed subsection (g)(6) of Enforcement Rule 208, for three reasons.

First, establishing a uniform procedure for notice eliminates any uncertainty about the person to whom notice is to be directed as well as any potential problems arising from a bankruptcy court's sending notice of a bankruptcy filing to any one of a number of agency locations, such as a district office many years after the entry of the judgment. Designating the Executive Director, who oversees all agency operations and finances, as the recipient of the notice ensures that the agency will have an opportunity to adequately assess and take appropriate steps to protect the agency's disciplinary and financial interests.

Second, prompt receipt of notice strengthens the Disciplinary Board's ability to take timely action in the bankruptcy proceeding, when warranted, to contest the dischargeability of the debt in furtherance of the goals of discipline. The Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals has held that the costs and expenses assessed against an attorney under Enforcement Rule 208(g)(1) are non-dischargeable in bankruptcy because they are in the nature of a fine or penalty, are "rolled into the overall sanction imposed against an attorney who engages in misconduct," and promote the Commonwealth's penal and rehabilitative interests. Disciplinary Board v. Allen L. Feingold (In re Feingold), 730 F.3d 1268, 1273-77 (11th Cir. 2013). See also In re Iulo, 564 Pa. 205, 214, 766 A.2d 335, 340 (2001) ("... Pennsylvania concerns itself with punishment as a prerequisite to rehabilitation.") The rehabilitative component of Enforcement Rule 208(g) is further illustrated in D.Bd. Rules § 89.272(c), which provides that the Disciplinary Board will not entertain a petition for reinstatement filed before a formerly admitted attorney has paid in full any costs taxed in relation to formal proceedings.

Third, disciplinary enforcement and administration is funded almost exclusively through the annual attorney registration fees collected by the Disciplinary Board pursuant to Enforcement Rule 219(a). Collection of taxed expenses, administrative fees, and assessed penalties helps to defray the expense of government and to maintain the attorney disciplinary system's self-sustaining status.

Amendment to Enforcement Rule
218(f) (Annex A):

Subsections (f)(2) - (3) of Enforcement Rule 218 provide for the taxation of necessary expenses incurred in the investigation and processing of a petition for reinstatement and the assessment of a penalty, levied monthly on the unpaid principal balance. Attorneys with an unpaid judgment under this Enforcement Rule who attempt to discharge the debt in bankruptcy should be required to give timely written notice of the attorney's filing for bankruptcy protection to the Executive Director of the Disciplinary Board as set forth in proposed subsection (f)(4) of Enforcement Rule 218, as all three considerations identified in the previous discussion - establishing a uniform procedure for notice, enhancing the Disciplinary Board's ability to contest dischargeability of the debt, and defraying the cost of government - apply with equal force to this proposed subsection. With respect to the second consideration, expenses taxed and penalties assessed under Enforcement Rule 218(f) further Pennsylvania's rehabilitative goal and should not be dischargeable in bankruptcy because their payment is a logical extension of the rehabilitative process. Cf. D.Bd. Rules § 89.272(c) (providing in part that the Disciplinary Board will not entertain a petition for reinstatement filed before a formerly admitted attorney has paid in full any costs taxed in connection with any previous reinstatement proceeding).

New Enforcement Rule 532 (Annex B):

Proposed Enforcement Rule 532 applies to an attorney who is either the subject of a claim pending with the Fund or who has received notice that the Fund has made a disbursement in connection with a claim against the attorney and the attorney has not repaid the Fund in full plus interest ("Covered Attorney"). The new rule would require the Covered Attorney to give timely written notice of the Covered Attorney's filing for bankruptcy protection to the Executive Director of the Fund.

The Fund's receipt of the notice required by proposed Enforcement Rule 532 would allow the Fund to be proactive in protecting the Fund's ability to collect an existing obligation owed to the Fund, or to protect the Fund's potential subrogation interest in a pending claim. A claimant who has a pending claim with the Fund may receive notice of the Covered Attorney's bankruptcy filing and may not understand the significance of the deadlines set forth on the notice. A claimant may not be inclined, or may not have the financial resources, to discuss the bankruptcy filing notice with an attorney. If the claimant does not file a proof of claim in the Covered Attorney's bankruptcy and an award is subsequently approved and paid, the Fund, by virtue of a subrogation agreement with the claimant, will stand in the shoes of the claimant and may have lost the opportunity to file a proof of claim or a Complaint in Nondischargeability. This lost opportunity may inhibit the Fund's ability to recover the obligation that is owed to the Fund by the Covered Attorney.

By receiving a notice of the filing of a bankruptcy, particularly when a claim is pending with the Fund, the Fund may enter an appearance in the Covered Attorney's bankruptcy as a party in interest in order to request an extension of the deadline to file a proof of claim or adversary proceeding. The Fund could also choose to expedite the review of the claim(s) pending with the Fund regarding the Covered Attorney who is now a debtor in bankruptcy, to be able to assess the Fund's potential subrogation rights should the pending claim(s) appear to fall within the definition of a Reimbursable Loss.

Finally, recoveries obtained from Covered Attorneys increase the Fund's available financial resources in order to accomplish the Fund's mission of reimbursing misappropriated client funds to the victims. Restitution, which is a condition for reinstatement under Enforcement Rule 531, also furthers the disciplinary system's goal of rehabilitation.

THE DISCIPLINARY BOARD OF THE
[204 PA. CODE]

Proposal to Amend the Disciplinary Board's Rule of Procedure Pertaining to Stale Matters to Replace the Tolling Provision Applicable to Complaints Involving Civil Fraud, Ineffective Assistance of Counsel, or Prosecutorial Misconduct

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Notice is hereby given that The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania (Board) is considering amending Disciplinary Board Rules ("D.Bd. Rules") § 85.10, as set forth in Annex A. Section 85.10, which is titled "Stale matters," is the rule equivalent of a statute of limitations and, with limited exceptions, forbids the Office of Disciplinary Counsel (ODC) or the Board from entertaining any complaint arising out of acts or omissions occurring more than four years prior to the date of the complaint.

Historical backdrop.

At the inception of the current disciplinary system in 1972, the only exceptions to the four-year limitations period in D.Bd. Rules § 85.10 were "cases involving theft or misappropriation, conviction of a crime or a knowing act of concealment." These four exceptions still exist and appear in subsection (b)(1) of the current rule.

In 1994, the Board created a fifth exception by adopting a tolling provision for any period when there is litigation involving allegations of civil fraud by the respondent-attorney. According to the publication of the adoption of the rule amendment, 24 Pa.B. 2693 (May 28, 1994), and the earlier Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 24 Pa.B. 1281 (March 12, 1994), the Board was anticipating that the rule would be relevant principally in cases where the Board had deferred a disciplinary proceeding under Enforcement Rule 211 pending the outcome of civil litigation but would also capture complaints filed with the Board after the completion of the independent litigation. This tolling provision currently appears in D.Bd. Rules § 85.10(b)(2).

In 2002, the Board extended the tolling provision of subsection (b)(2) to include complaints alleging ineffective assistance of counsel or prosecutorial misconduct, 32 Pa.B. 1838 (April 28, 2002), thereby increasing the number of exceptions to seven. The Board recognized that it may take more than four years for some cases of ineffective assistance of counsel or prosecutorial misconduct to come to the attention of the Board. Id. See also 31 Pa.B. 6031 (November 3, 2001) (Notice of Proposed Rulemaking).

"Tolling" is ineffectual in cases of ethical misconduct.

The Board now believes that the tolling provision in subsection (b)(2) is an ineffectual method of determining when ODC and the Board are allowed to proceed with a complaint, for several reasons. One reason is that the limitations period runs from the time of the misconduct, which could be prior to or during settlement, guilty plea proceedings, or trial, irrespective of whether the client has discovered the misconduct. Thus, for example, if trial counsel in a criminal case is incompetent or ineffective at the pretrial or trial stage, and the defendant is represented by the same counsel on direct appeal, the defendant may not discover (and consequently will not raise) the issue of trial counsel's incompetence or ineffectiveness until represented by competent counsel after the conclusion of the direct appeals, which could be years after the misconduct, when the four-year window to file a complaint has already closed. The Board has considered but rejected the adoption of a discovery provision because such a provision would likely spawn litigation over the precise date when the convicted defendant or civil client discovered or reasonably should have discovered the attorney's misconduct. Putting the focus on the finding of fraud or other misconduct provides a definitive objective trigger for determining the date of the finality of the litigation in which the finding is made while eliminating the need for collateral litigation over the former client's subjective state of mind.

Tolling is also inadequate to determine the viability of an ethics complaint because the lengths of time that are not tolled are dependent upon a number of fortuitous circumstances that vary from case to case and over which the client has little or no control. In the example where the criminal defendant is represented by incompetent or ineffective counsel on direct appeal, the four-year window for filing a complaint is closing during the appellate process, the length of which is influenced by circumstances such as the ability to secure pre-trial and trial transcripts, counsel's and the prosecutor's ability to promptly generate an appellate brief, the presence or absence of oral argument or a remand for the taking of additional evidence, and the appellate courts' grant or denial of a petition for reconsideration or review by the court en banc. There may be additional time that is not subject to tolling as a result of delays in sentencing or a hiatus between the exhaustion of the direct review and the commencement of a collateral proceeding for post-conviction relief. The same variables apply to the review of the conduct of the prosecutor, whose mishaps during pre-trial discovery or at trial may not be scrutinized until after the exhaustion of the direct and collateral state review process and the initiation of a federal habeas proceeding. Anecdotal evidence, which is confidential under Enforcement Rules 209(a) and 402, illustrates the existence of disciplinary complaints that warranted disciplinary consideration but were dismissed because they could not survive ODC's preliminary review conducted pursuant to the current rule's tolling provision. An effective attorney disciplinary agency must be in a position to thoroughly assess the need for disciplinary accountability for publicly adjudicated cases of unethical conduct.

Uncertainty can also arise in applying the tolling provision to a particular case, in that questions arise as to what proceedings or segments of sequential proceedings are to be tolled. Under the language of the current rule's tolling provision, time is excluded during any period of pending litigation "that has resulted in a finding that the subject acts or omissions involved civil fraud, ineffectiveness assistance of counsel or prosecutorial misconduct by the respondent-attorney." (Emphasis added). Hence, the tolling provision requires proof of a causal connection between the litigation and the finding of one of the three forms of misconduct. By way of hypothetical question, if state court review concludes without a finding of ineffective assistance or prosecutorial misconduct but such a finding is entered during subsequent federal review, does the state court review establish the requisite causal connection, such that the period of state court review is excluded when calculating the four-year limitations period? On the one hand, one could reasonably argue that the period of state court review should not be excludable because there was a break in the litigation chain and the filing of a federal habeas action was the commencement of a separate and distinct litigation. On the other hand, one could reasonably maintain that the period of state court review should be excludable time because the exhaustion of state court remedies is a necessary predicate of federal review, and but for the state court litigation, the federal remedy could not have been achieved. No clear rules guide the analysis.

Proposed amendments to D.Bd. Rules § 85.10.

To remedy the situation and capture those matters that would otherwise evade review, the Board proposes that the tolling provision in subsection (b)(2) be replaced with a provision that would allow ODC and the Board to entertain a complaint of civil fraud, ineffective assistance of counsel, or prosecutorial misconduct "if filed or opened within: i) four years of the subject acts or omissions; or ii) two years after the litigation in which the finding [of one of those three forms of misconduct] was made becomes final, whichever date is later." Subsection (b)(2)(ii) provides a two-year window for any former client or complainant who successfully litigates his or her claim in a civil or criminal forum. Any ambiguity over the calculation of when the litigation "becomes final" is addressed in new subsection (c) of the proposed rule, which definition borrows heavily from § 9545(b)(3) of Pennsylvania's Post Conviction Relief Act, 42 Pa.C.S. § 9541 et seq. ("PCRA"). To be clear, the language of the PCRA provision addresses when a "judgment" becomes final for purposes of initiating collateral review under the PCRA, and is therefore not on point, although the statutory language with some modification, as set forth in new subsection (c), is well suited to provide the required guidance. Moreover, the definition is sufficiently general to be adaptable to post-conviction and post-verdict civil court procedures in all state and federal jurisdictions.

Irrespective of subsection (b)(2)(ii)'s two-year window, subsection (b)(2)(i) ensures that the limitations period for civil fraud, ineffective assistance of counsel, or prosecutorial misconduct is not reduced to less than four years, in that subsection (b)(2)(i) guarantees that a complainant will have not less than four years from the date of the misconduct in which to file a complaint. Hence, if a complainant were to obtain a finding of civil fraud, ineffective assistance of counsel, or prosecutorial misconduct within six months of the misconduct and no additional litigation over that finding was forthcoming, under subsection (b)(2)(i) the complainant would have three-and-one-half years remaining in which to file a complaint with the Board.

Finally, neither litigation nor a finding of misconduct is a prerequisite to the filing or entertaining of a disciplinary complaint. The Board proposes the addition of a Note following the rule as a preemptive strike to any attempt by a litigant to construe new subsection (b)(2) as imposing a requirement that a complainant institute litigation in a civil, criminal or administrative forum and obtain a finding of misconduct before his or her complaint may be entertained by Disciplinary Counsel or the Board.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments by mail or facsimile regarding the proposed amendments to the Executive Office, The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, 601 Commonwealth Avenue, Suite 5600, PO Box 62625, Harrisburg, PA 17106-2625, Facsimile number (717-231-3381), Email address Dboard.comments@pacourts.us on or before December 4, 2020.

Notice of Hearing on Petition to Involuntarily Terminate Parental Rights

In Re: Adoption of Elijah David Campbell a/k/a Elijah Campbell, a minor. No. CP-02-AP-200-2019 in the Orphans' Court Division of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, Pennsylvania.

To: Michelle Lynn Campbell a/k/a Michelle Campbell and The Unknown Father, parents of Elijah David Campbell a/k/a Elijah Campbell, a minor, born on November 3, 2006, in Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania. A Petition has been filed asking the Court to put an end to all rights you have to your child, Elijah David Campbell a/k/a Elijah Campbell. The Court has set a hearing to consider ending your rights to your child. That hearing will be held on Friday, November 13, 2020 at 1:30 p.m., prevailing time, before the Honorable Michael F. Marmo. This hearing will not take place in the courthouse, but will be proceeding via telephone or video conferencing. In order for you to virtually participate in this hearing, it is important that you contact the assigned caseworker, Cassie McIlwain, at (412) 473-2300, or your legal counsel/attorney to obtain information for how to participate by telephone or video conference. The aforementioned caseworker and/or your attorney may be able to provide you with a phone number or link to the virtual hearing. You are warned that even if you fail to participate in the scheduled hearing, the hearing will go on without you and your rights to your child may be ended by the Court without your being present. You have a right to be represented at the hearing by a lawyer. You should contact your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help.

This is also to inform you of an important option that may be available to you under Pennsylvania law. Act 101 of 2010 allows for an enforceable voluntary agreement for continuing contact or communication following an adoption between an adoptive parent, a child, a birth parent, and/or a birth relative of the child, if all parties agree and the voluntary agreement is approved by the Court. If you are interested in learning more about this option for a voluntary agreement, contact your attorney or:

UPDATED PROCEDURE: Please Use Our New Address, Online System or Email to Send Legal Ads

As the ACBA adheres to social distancing mandates, there are currently minimal ACBA employees working in our Koppers Building office. We are requesting that Pittsburgh Legal Journal ads be sent to us the following ways:

Online system: Submission of most legal notices for publication in the Pittsburgh Legal Journal must be done through our online system, which can be accessed here: type.pittsburghlegaljournal.org. While not all types of legal advertisements can be submitted using this method, most can. You do not need to be a subscriber to register and to create a username and password to use this option.

The types of legal advertisements customers must type using our online system are: Articles of Incorporation Business Corp., Articles of Incorporation Nonprofit Corp., Articles of Incorporation Professional Corp., Cert. of Limited Partnership, Cert. of Organization L.L.C., Estates, Fictitious Name Registration, Statement of Registration Foreign Business Corp., Statement of Registration Foreign Nonprofit Corp., Voluntary Dissolution Business Corp., Voluntary Dissolution Nonprofit Corp., and Voluntary Dissolution Professional Corp.

By Email: Send your legal ad to PLJads@acba.org. ACBA staff will process your request and email you an invoice that can be paid online by credit card. Only the following types of ads can be processed via email: Adoptions, Action to Quiet Title, App. Cert. for Authority Foreign Business (which are now Statement of Registration), App. Cert. for Authority Foreign Nonprofit Corp. (which are now Statement of Registration), Application for Termination of Authority, Availability of Annual Return, Bankruptcy Notice, Delinquent Tax Notice, Intent to Withdraw Foreign Business Corp, Intent to Withdraw Foreign Nonprofit Corp., Marshals Sale, Notice, Notice of Action in Mortgage Foreclosure, Notice of Condemnation, Notice of Lawsuit, and Notice of Trust.

For your convenience, all PLJ templates are available online here:
pittsburghlegaljournal.org/advertising/index.php

By U.S. Mail: If you prefer to continue to mail in your legal ads, please do so but use this lockbox address: ACBA, P.O. Box 3455, Pittsburgh, PA 15230.

Thank you for your cooperation during these unprecedented times. For more information or assistance, contact Denise Velez at 412-402-6687, dvelez@acba.org or Jim Spezialetti at 412-402-6662, jspezialetti@acba.org.
