COURT NOTICES

Pennsylvania Supreme Court

The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania [204 PA. CODE CH. 81]

Proposed Amendments to the Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct Relating to Conflict of Interest: Current Clients: Specific Rules

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Notice is hereby given that The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania ("Board") is considering recommending to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania that the Court amend Pennsylvania Rule of Professional Conduct 1.8(e) and related commentary. EXPLANATORY REPORT

Rule 1.8(e) prohibits a lawyer from providing financial assistance to a client in connection with pending or contemplated litigation. There are two exceptions: advancing court costs and expenses of litigation, the repayment of which may be contingent on the outcome of the matter; and paying court costs and expenses of litigation on behalf of a client when a lawyer represents an indigent client. Comment [10] explains that allowing lawyers to subsidize lawsuits and administrative proceedings, including making or guaranteeing loans to their clients for living expenses, could encourage clients to pursue lawsuits that might not otherwise be brought and give lawyers too great a financial stake in the litigation. However, the advancement of court costs and litigation expenses is permissible because such costs and expenses are comparable to contingent fees and in the situation of representing indigent clients, helps ensure access to the courts.

The Board's proposal would add another exception to Rule 1.8(e) to allow a lawyer representing an indigent client pro bono to provide modest gifts to the client for food, rent, transportation, medicine, and other basic living expenses. Under the proposed new exception, a lawyer would not be permitted to (1) promise, assure or imply the availability of financial assistance before the client retains the lawyer or do so as a means to induce the client to continue the client-lawyer relationship; (2) seek or accept reimbursement from the client or a relative or affiliate of the client; and (3) publicize or advertise a willingness to provide gifts to prospective clients beyond court costs and expenses of litigation in connection with contemplated or pending litigation or administrative proceedings. The proposed exception represents narrow circumstances and none of the concerns raised by the current prohibition is present.

The proposal to add a narrow exception to RPC 1.8(e) reflects the recognition that the COVID-19 pandemic has financially impacted historically marginalized communities and has heightened concerns that vulnerable Pennsylvanians have restricted access to justice. The proposal is in keeping with the legal profession's ongoing efforts to afford access to justice to those in need. With the appropriate limitations in place to mitigate the risk of abuse, lawyers should have the discretion whether to make modest gifts to indigent clients they represent on a pro bono basis without fear of potential discipline. In making this proposal, the Board notes that in August 2020, the American Bar Association ("ABA") adopted an amendment to Model Rule of Professional Conduct 1.8(e) to permit lawyers to make modest gifts to pro bono clients for necessities.¹ The proposed changes would substantially conform Pennsylvania's RPC 1.8(e) to correspond to the ABA Model Rule. Interested persons are invited to submit written comments, suggestions or objections by mail, email or facsimile to the Executive Office, The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, 601 Commonwealth Avenue, Suite 5600, PO Box 62625, Harrisburg, PA 17106-2625, facsimile number (717-231-3381), email address

Proposed Amendments to the Pennsylvania Rules of Disciplinary Enforcement Relating to the Disciplinary Board's Power to Authorize Electronic Means to Conduct Proceedings and Public Access Through Livestream Technology

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Notice is hereby given that The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania ("Board") is considering recommending to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania that the Court amend Pennsylvania Rules of Disciplinary Enforcement 205 and 402.

EXPLANATORY REPORT Consistent with state courts and agencies in the Commonwealth, during the COVID-19 outbreak the Board has continued its essential operations by conducting hearings, arguments, reprimands and other proceedings remotely through the use of advanced video communication technology. Livestream technology provides public access to public proceedings. Recognizing both that the future is uncertain and that the use of remote proceedings and livestream technology has benefitted the disciplinary system by providing flexibility and greater public access, the Board proposes amendments to Rules 205(c) and 402(i).

Pa.R.D.E. 205(c) enumerates the Board's powers and duties. The Board's proposal adds the additional power to authorize electronic means to conduct proceedings within the rules and decisional law of the Court and the Board. While current Rule 402(j) gives the Board, as well as hearing committees, special masters and the Supreme Court, the ability to authorize electronic and photographic means during a proceeding to present evidence, perpetuate the record, or for other judicial administration purposes, the Board determined that it is necessary to solidify its power to authorize electronic means by specifically setting forth that power in Rule 205.

Pa.R.D.E. 402 governs access to disciplinary information and confidentiality. The Board's proposal amends subdivision (j) to address public access to public proceedings. New subparagraph (j)(2) provides that public access to a public proceeding before a hearing committee, special master or the Board shall consist of or be supplemented by livestream technology. Based on the experience gained over the past 16 months, the Board views the public's ability to observe livestreamed public proceedings on YouTube as a great benefit. The livestream allows much greater access to disciplinary and reinstatement proceedings, as it affords members of the public the convenience of viewing a proceeding from any location, rather than having to attend a proceeding in-person at one of the district offices in the Commonwealth. The proposed revisions further provide that the livestream access ceases upon the conclusion of the proceeding and the official record of the proceeding is the record generated by the court reporter, if such is applicable.

The use of livestream technology does not prohibit the public from attending proceedings in-person. Proposed subparagraph (j)(3) permits public access to a public proceeding through a request process, which will ensure adherence to any health and safety policies in place at the time of the request. The tandem approach of livestream technology and public access upon request accomplishes reasonable means of access to disciplinary proceedings.

September 1 - McGinley, J. Courtroom 4012 at 2:00 PM
September 2 - Satler, J. 706 City-County Building at 2:00 PM
September 3 - McGough, J. Courtroom 4012 at 10:30 AM
September 6 - Court Holiday get confidential consultation on their legal actions and/or potential actions through the bar association's Professional Ethics Hotline.

Through this service, members of the ACBA Professional Ethics Committee are available to give their opinion on the proper interpretation of the Code of Judicial Conduct and/or Rules of Professional Conduct. They are available to address ethics questions from any ACBA member, but they advise only about the member's own conduct; they will not give opinions about the conduct of other lawyers or judicial officials.

Members of the Professional Ethics Committee take shifts as "duty officers" throughout the year. For details or to obtain the contact information of this month's duty officer, see ACBA.org/OfficerAssignments. This issue contains trial lists for Thursday, August 26 and Friday, August 27, 2021. Most Criminal Division proceedings are being conducted by teleconference, when appropriate and feasible. But courtrooms are open and operating for some proceedings.
