Proposed Amendments to the Rules of Professional Conduct and Disciplinary Board Rules and Procedures Relating to Lawyer Succession PlanningNotice of Proposed Rulemaking

Notice is hereby given that The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania (the "Board") is considering recommending to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania amendments to the Rules of Professional Conduct and Disciplinary Board Rules and Procedures to require that every active lawyer in private practice in Pennsylvania maintain a written succession plan.

EXPLANATORY REPORTNew Rule of Professional Conduct 1.20

Pennsylvania's current Rules of Professional Conduct do not mandate that private practice lawyers maintain a succession plan,¹ yet the Board recognizes that such planning is essential. The future is unpredictable and lawyers must strive to lessen the impact of unexpected interruption to their relationships with clients by proactively protecting the clients' interests in the event of the attorney's death, disability, or other unanticipated absence. A succession plan helps ensure a smooth transition of client files and ease chaos in times of crisis.

Proposed Rule of Professional Conduct ("RPC") 1.20 governs lawyer succession planning. Subdivision (a) provides that every active lawyer in private practice in Pennsylvania have a written succession plan. This subdivision sets in the minimum requirements of the plan, which should include: (1) the identity of the lawyer or law firm designated to carry out the plan; (2) the location of information necessary to access the designating lawyer's pertinent records; and (3) information on the designating lawyer's trust and operating accounts and corresponding records. Subdivision (b) requires that the designating lawyer notify the assisting lawyer and obtain that lawyer's written consent to act as the assisting lawyer. The designating lawyer must also inform clients of the existence of the succession plan. Subdivision (c) addresses the liability of the assisting lawyer, and provides that the rule is not intended to create liability, but rather any such liability is determined by the terms of the agreement between the designating lawyer and the assisting lawyer.

The commentary following the rule text provides guidance to practitioners on implementing a succession plan tailored to the lawyer's particular circumstances and offers examples to demonstrate that there can be flexibility in crafting the plan. As well, the commentary gives guidance to lawyers who practice in firm settings that include other Pennsylvania-admitted lawyers in good standing, that they may designate the firm as the successor, and reminds lawyers of the obligation to notify clients of the succession plan, preferably by including the information in the engagement or retainer agreement.

Disciplinary Board Rule § 87.7(b)

A revision to the Disciplinary Board Rules would permit Office of Disciplinary Counsel to ask respondent-attorneys about their compliance with new Rule 1.20 as part of the process of sending a DB-7 Letter (Request for Statement of Respondent's Position) during ODC's investigation of a matter, as well as request that the respondent attorney produce the succession plan. This proposed rule change gives Disciplinary Counsel the opportunity to discuss the requirements of succession planning with a respondent-attorney and allow for an educational opportunity.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments, suggestions or objections by mail, email or facsimile to the Executive Office, The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, 601 Commonwealth Avenue, Suite 5600, PO Box 62625, Harrisburg, PA 17106-2625, facsimile number (717-231-3381), email address Dboard.comments@pacourts.us on or before May 1, 2024.

¹Rule of Professional Conduct 1.3, Comment [5] provides that, "[t]o prevent neglect of client matters in the event of a sole practitioner's death or disability, the duty of diligence may require that each sole practitioner prepare a plan, in conformity with applicable rules, that designates another competent lawyer to review client files, notify each client of the lawyer's death or disability, and determine whether there is a need for immediate protective action."

AMENDED NOTICE

If your name appears on this list of properties that are scheduled to be sold by the Sheriff, you still have time to save your property. You may be eligible to apply for some form of refinancing assistance, such as a reverse mortgage, refinancing of your existing mortgage, or other alternative.

Please seek legal advice. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal assistance. Find out by contacting a legal service listed below.

Do not delay. If you delay, fees, cost and interest can increase significantly. An example of what can occur is as follows:

A 2004 property with an original delinquent tax amount owed of $325.02 had a final amount due at sale of $2,133.26.

If you have not contacted the creditor, you should consider doing so. Many creditors will work with you to try to avoid a Sheriff's Sale of your property. If the Sheriff's Sale involves a mortgage foreclosure of your residence, you may reinstate your mortgage by paying the full amount of the delinquencies, including all fees and costs up to the day of the Sheriff's Sale.

Should your property be among those listed for Sheriff's Sale, information is available by contacting the Allegheny County Sheriff's Office MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE HOTLINE AT 412-350-4704 daily Monday through Friday (except holidays), between the hours of 9:00 AM and 11:00 AM and from 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM.
